Dear Ms. Craig:

Enclosed is the royalty payment for the use of the full text of your publication in the Information Access Company databases. Your royalties are computed at 50% of the revenue generated by your magazine title(s) between January and June, 1986.

Information Access Company (IAC) helps as a publisher to repackage your data and resell it in different forms. The gathering, repackaging and reselling is accomplished for the publisher without the cost of such technology. As a pioneer in the electronic information business, IAC continues toward gaining a better understanding of how to best sell your information. We are working towards expanding the coverage and marketing of our databases on other information systems. Such increased exposure will increase usage of not only IAC databases, but also that of your publication.

We appreciate your continued participation in our information venture. You probably don't recognize my name from previous correspondence. I am your new contact person for questions that arise from your agreements with IAC.

If you need assistance, please feel free to contact me at (800)227-8431.

Sincerely,

Jinna Gibson
Manager of Contract & Permissions
